PLATTFORM ZEITGEMÄSSER KUNST (PZK) // PLATFORM FOR CONTEMPORARY ART

After several successful appearances with contemporary art in the urban space of Dresden, DEI FUNK WuK, PARASIT Dresdner mobiles Europainstitut für Neue Kunst, Neue Kulturarbeit, Kultur & Wissenschaft & Wirtschaft e. V. is planning a consistent development of visualisation, enjoyment and discussion of art in public space in 2022. The PLATFORM ZEITGEMÄSSER KUNST in Dresden is literally waiting for art: we take a look at contemporary art as well as at historical art - in front of August der Starke riding his golden horse - being eyeball to eyeball.

Our central platform will be erected at Neustädter Markt, from there we will wait for art, keep up our abilities of marvel and being visitors of art in a performative manner: art will happen on and in tram shelters, art will be moved and transported in the tram our actions and performances shall particularly draw the attention of the audience, the mankind-in-motion towards our work, our creations: finally...art?

We are inviting contributors, actors and collaborators from all over the world.

The PLATFORM ZEITGEMAESSER KUNST and its radiating actions unfold from July 2nd to July 10th, 2022. The central point, Neustädter Markt, will be dominated by our platform - a designed and individually tailorable scaffold object. The performance and action programme will take place mainly on the weekends. The artistic appropriation of 12 surrounding tram stops can cover the entire period. To submit, please send a draft (1 page A4 max. length) to entries@deifunkwuk.org containing precise details of the proposed realisation or work, the financial outlay and, if applicable, material or personnel expenditure. In case of a performance or installation we need possibly a length and period according to the schedule as well as the number of participants.

The deadline is April 30, 2022 at the latest. For personal contact and further queries you may also use the E-Mail-address above.

The participants will be selected from the submissions by a jury of experts with the participation of DEI FUNK WuK. Subject to final funding the jury will decide on the dimension of the project and a proper realization of the art works. We also wish to work together with the participants during the project period to discuss the location, situational contributions or support in the urban surroundings. Therefore cooperation and a period of presence of the participants is desirable.

In case of provided funding, we aim to remunerate the exhibited or realised works appropriately. Further information about our group and our projects is provided at deifunkwuk.org

We offer a Q&A on 16 March 2022 at 5pm CET via zoom
